

Please join us for an informal dessert reception and gathering of friends to welcome Jewish Children's Regional Service (JCRS) to San Antonio.

Ned Goldberg, JCRS Executive Director and Mark Rubin, Development Director will be on hand to discuss the role JCRS plays in San Antonio and throughout Texas in helping Jewish families and youth with educational scholarships, Jewish summer camp experiences, and assistance to children with special needs.

This year, New Orleans-based JCRS will serve or fund more than 1700 Jewish youth from across its seven-state service region that includes Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Arkansas, Alabama, and Mississippi.

For more information about this event and to RSVP, contact Mark Rubin at mark@jcrs.org or (504)828-6334 or (800) 729-5277. Visit www.jcrs.org to learn more about JCRS programs and services.

Please RSVP no later than Monday, October 22, or at your earliest convenience, so we can plan accordingly.

We hope you can join us!
